

SAFETY OF LIFE AND CARGO AT SEA

Hazcheck News - Issue 31

Hello $[FNAME]$,

Welcome to Issue 31 of Hazcheck News.

We hope that you are staying safe and well. The Exis office will be opening again on 1 July for staff to return to their desks as we ease out of lockdown. We are looking forward to being able to support our customers together in a real team environment moving forward.

Our full range of IMDG Code e-learning Amendment 40-20 courses is now available to buy from our new website.

The IMDG Code Amendment 40-20 books (Volumes 1 and 2) are also available to buy. The IMDG Code Amendment 40-20 Supplement will be available in June 2021.

ONLINE TRAINING FOR TRANSPORT REGULATORY COMPLIANCE

IMDG CODE E-LEARNING

Mandatory training for shore side staff

IMDG Code e-learning Amendment 40-20 courses now available!

We are delighted to announce that all of our IMDG Code e-learning Amendment 40-20 web courses are now available to buy!

The courses meet the mandatory training requirements in Chapter 1.3.1 of the IMDG Code. Training and assessment is 100% online and accessible from any location for 'go anywhere, train in your own time' solutions.

Amendment 40-20 courses are open book and include hyperlinks to enhance your training experience. The courses are self-contained so students are not required to have the IMDG Code available as a reference, unless they wish to. The training experience includes a course completion certificate that can be printed out and kept as a record of training. We offer a FREE administrator function for management of multiple courses in local, regional or global training programmes.

List of courses:

- IMDG Code Refresher - update your training to Amdt 40-20 without the need to take a full course again! Suitable for those who have already been trained online, or in the classroom, and have previous knowledge of the IMDG Code.
- Dangerous Goods Transport General Awareness - for those who need a familiarisation with dangerous goods transport regulations and an awareness of the duties that arise from them.
- IMDG Code Standard - for general shipping personnel such as booking office staff, administrators, customer support and office personnel who require a sound working knowledge of the IMDG Code and dangerous goods shipping requirements.
- IMDG Code Consignor/Freight Forwarder - for personnel with a management, supervisory and/or safety compliance role for a company involved in DG consignment operations, for example, shipping or freight forwarding.
- IMDG Code Ship Loader - for personnel responsible for and/or directly involved in ship loading/unloading operations.
- IMDG Code Ship Operator - for personnel responsible for and /or involved with managing the operation of a vessel carrying dangerous goods.
- IMDG Code Advanced - for senior dangerous goods managers/dangerous goods safety advisers (DGSA's) who required detailed training on all the main aspects of the IMDG Code provisions.

Additional 49 CFR and ADR modules available which look at additional requirements in those regulations when moving under the IMDG Code provisions.

SCORM versions of the courses for learning management systems will be available June 2021.

Sponsored by TT Club and supported by ICHCA. Free trial available.

Course authors, certification and updating

IMDG Code e-learning was developed by a dedicated team with teaching, dangerous goods, project management and programming skills, with the support of industry bodies and in collaboration with the International Maritime Organization. Content and examination questions are continually reviewed by a team of experts. The course has been assessed and certified against Det Norske Veritas (DNV) Standard for Certification of Learning Programmes.
